Tx Mary. I didn't hear from cnn. A friend told me he saw the story on cnn. Perhaps that explains the other incoming calls from today. See u in the morning.

Hi Tom and Liz

Judith did NBC and ABC interviews for tomorrow at 730 on the morning shows and also apparently heard from CNN and I just got an email from CBS asking for a statement. I am not sure what has prompted the intense interest, but the coverage began expanding today and was picked up by People Mag and others. As you know EPA is actively investigating this horrible incident. Very sadly, according to news coverage today both sons remain in critical condition.
